

Code of Conduct

For Students Participating In Consumer Loans or Federal Financial Aid

Important Notice:

All students attending The Salon Professional Academy may choose to use any eligible lender. The Academy does not have a preferred lender list. The Academy is required to process loan documents for any eligible lender selected by students.

The Salon Professional Academy's primary goal is to assist students in achieving the educational career goals by providing appropriate financial resources. The financial aid/ assistance office is committed to:

- Making every effort to assist students and families with their financial need
- Inform students and remove financial barriers for those desiring to further their education
- Educating students and families concerning consumer information and all forms of aid available for those who qualify
- Protecting and respecting the privacy of students
- Ensuring the confidentiality of student records and personal circumstances
- Performing a needs analysis in a consistent manner for each student
- Providing services that do not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, religion, age, economic status, ethnicity or sexual orientation
- Attending training seminars after approved for Title IV funding to stay current with all Department of Education regulations
- Remaining at the highest level of ethical behavior
- No Co-branding or sharing of logos with the lender(s)

The Salon Professional Academy financial assistance/aid office is expected to always maintain ideal standards of professionalism in relation to interacting with students and families while carrying out the responsibilities of their position. All Academy staff involved will:

- Remain objective in making decisions and advising in relation to the student's financial aid
- Provide accurate information without any personal bias
- Abstain from taking any actions for personal benefit
- After approved for Federal funding, follow the Title IV laws and regulations
- Will keep the best interest of the student and families first and foremost
- Refrain from soliciting or accepting gifts from loan agencies, or any government agency

Code of Conduct / Academy Ethics

Federal Reserve Board and Department of Education final rules for private education loans and Title IV Funding replaces prior special rules for student credit extension.

The Federal Reserve Board (FRB) regulates required disclosures on private education loans and defines certain key terms. The Department of Education (ED) regulates the required disclosures on Title IV Aid, HEA loans and private education loans.

The Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) defines:

- An Institution-affiliated organization is an entity directly or indirectly related to a covered institution that recommends, promotes, or endorses education loans.
- Lender-an eligible private education lender or any other person engaged in the business of securing, making or extending education loans on behalf of the lender.

Code of Conduct

- Private education loan-is a non-Title IV loan provided by a private educational lender expressly for post-secondary educational expenses and does not include an extension of credit under an open-end consumer credit plan or secured by real property.
- Private educational loans and Title IV loans are not in any way related.
- The Academy is not considered a private lender if the extension of credit is 90 days or less and interest will not be applied to the credit balance and the term is one year or less, even if payable in more than 4 payments.
- Preferred lender arrangement is an arrangement or agreement between a lender and covered institution in which a lender provides education loans to students/families and the covered institution recommend, promotes or endorses the education loan products of the lender.
 - The Academy does not have a preferred lender arrangement with any lenders.
 - Includes arrangements between a lender and an institution-affiliated organization
 - Does not include:
 - Direct Loan Program Loans through the Dept. of Ed
 - Education funds covered by The Academy's own funds
 - Funds by donor-directed contributions
 - State funded financial aid programs if the terms and conditions of the loan include a loan forgiveness option for public service
- An Education loan is a Direct Loan or a private education loan. The terms and conditions of the Title IV, HEA program loans may be more favorable than the provisions of the private educational loans.
- Code of Conduct Requirements for The Academy – Affiliated Organizations
 - The Code of Conduct will be displayed in plain sight on The Academy's website.
 - The Academy will administer, enforce, and review the Code of Conduct for all Academy staff involved annually.
 - The Academy does not promote any lender during the Entrance/Exit Interview process.
 - The Academy prohibits contracting arrangement providing financial benefit from any lender or affiliate of a lender
 - Prohibits offers of funds for private loans
 - Prohibits call center or financial aid office staffing assistance
 - Prohibits Advisory Board compensation
 - The Academy does not hire any consultants contracted by any private lender.
 - The Academy does not have any affiliates of lenders serve on their Advisory Board.
 - The Academy owners/staff will not participate on any affiliated lenders Advisory Board.
 - The Academy's financial aid / assistance office is prohibited from directing borrowers to certain lenders or delaying loan certifications.
 - The Academy does not assign lenders to any student's aid award package and does not refuse or delay loan certification based on the borrowers choice of lender.
 - The Academy is not involved in payment to any lenders, whether directly or indirectly, in exchange for points, premiums, or interest of financial support in exchange for extending credit to a student.
- Academies offering Federal Aid under the Program Participation Agreement will:
 - Develop, publish, and administer and enforce the code of conduct with respect to loans guaranteed under the Title IV programs or Higher Education Act (HEA) loan programs.
 - Compile yearly, maintain, and make available to all students, a list of lenders for loans issued or guaranteed under the Title IV programs or HEA loan programs.
 - The Academy, upon request from a student or prospective student, must provide a Department of Education/FRB self-certification form and information needed to complete the form.
 - Self-certification form must contain disclosures stating the applicant may qualify for Federal, State, or Academy aid.

Code of Conduct

- The applicant will be encouraged to discuss available options with the Financial Aid Administrator and that private education loans may affect the applicant's eligibility for Federal, State, or Academy aid.
- The Academy will aid the applicant in reviewing what information the applicant must provide on the self-certification form obtained in The Academy Financial Aid Office.
- Information reviewed with applicant will include Cost of Attendance (COA), the student's Estimated Financial Assistance (EFA), and the difference between the two.
- The lender may provide to the applicant a pre-filled self-certification form. This self-certification form must be signed by the applicant.
- The lender must obtain the signed self-certification form before consummation of the loan.
- Lender may receive the self-certification from the applicant or The Academy.
- Administrative Capability
 - When the PPA is originally signed and upon continuing to participate in Title IV aid or HEA programs, The Academy will:
 - Report annually to The Department of Education any "reasonable reimbursements" in accordance with State or Federal reimbursement policies that are paid by any private education lenders to any Academy employee in the Financial Aid Office who is responsible for education loans.
- Right to Cancel
 - The applicant may cancel within 3 business days of receipt of the lenders final disclosure form.
 - Funds will not be disbursed until the cancellation period expires.